The Doll Displays

In the Basement.

Universal interest is excited. It is an exhibit at once bewildering, gigantic and complete. Selling is swift because the prices need only be known to be effective. We never knew a time when so little money could buy so much. A few proofs from many—

The Great Holiday Book Sale

Continues in Its Course of Magnificent Successes!

Wonder and delight—unintended expressions of appreciation and praise have poured upon us from every side as a result of this remarkable sale. Such Book selling as was accomplished here last week is a veritable triumph. It means that this season we are in the lead. It means that we are selling fine Library Sets as well as Standard and Educational Works of great value at prices that have fairly started the Book World of New York. WHERE CAN SUCH WONDERFUL VALUES BE FOUND?

History of the United States,

By JOHN CLARK RIDPATH, LL.D.
AUTHOR OF HISTORY OF THE WORLD.
ENCYCLOPEDIA OF UNIVERSAL HISTORY, ETC.

$3.95
PER SET OF 2 VOLS.
TRADE PRICE, $6.50.

This is an entirely new edition in two magnificent volumes—just off the press and a credit to the publishers' taste and skill. Every phase and period of American history are fully treated—from the earliest known times to the present moment—even treating so recent an occurrence as the assassination of President McKinley. The two handsome volumes are bound in the FINEST BOOK SILK CLOTH—printed from NEW AND BOLD TYPE ON SUPER CALENDERED PAPER. It contains two hundred and ten illustrations—including photographs and about fifty full-page half-tones, with thirteen colored maps, (ten being double page folders). Never was a time when there was such intense interest manifested in American History—not only by Americans, but also by the entire civilized world—and this offer also comes at a period when the right book for Christmas gift giving is eagerly sought for. Here it is—at a price that barely covers the publishers' cost to produce!
